From Our Perspective

For your dedication to those who defend freedom, we thank you...

For driving forward without hesitation to help in a financial season when most dig in, we thank you...

You asked for nothing in return, and you gave more than expected, and for that we thank you...

Those you supported, could not ask, yet their families were still in need, and for that we thank you...

In your corporate missions, you achieve excellence, and exceed above your competitors, and that quality overflows in your compassion for those who defend freedom, and for that we thank you...

In your excellence in defense, you rank high and yet you forget not those who are in need, and for that we thank you....

Your kindness was translated in a way that provided food for those hungry, clothing for those needing clothes, and help with shelter from hopeless times, and for that we thank you.

You gave in such a way that was silent, without fanfare, or attention to yourselves, and for that we thank you...

We want to share with those who benefit from the kindness of people like you, because, we live in a land that is free because of the brave, we enjoy liberty at the expense of our fighting force, and we pursue happiness because those who pay the cost of freedom make the way that we walk in safety – and they do it with honor for country.

Thank you,
